Subject: Access to TCEQ web page containing CES information

Good Morning All,

The TCEQ web page log-in page for the CES site information is not working. It is an IT problem that we are working diligently to fix. You can bypass the web page and access the information by going directly to the URL, which is listed below.

www.tceq.texas.gov/assets/public/remediation/restricted/correct.html

Thank you for your understanding and patience in this matter.
